SECTION 1

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

Case Report 23-1069

On Feb. 25 around 6:50 p.m., officers were dispatched to cover a medical call in the 500 block of North 7th Avenue. It was reported that a 50-year-old female had fallen in her home. Medical personnel were already transporting the female to the hospital when officers arrived to the scene. There, they learned that the neighbor had called the female's mother to check on her since the neighbor had not heard from her that day. Officers spoke with firefighters on scene who said that the injuries of the female appeared not to be consistent with that of a fall. After seeing a large amount of blood, officers called detectives to the scene and conducted a neighborhood canvass. At this time, detectives are still working to determine if the female fell or if something else may have happened. This is an active investigation and the female remains in critical condition.

Case Report 23-1071

On Feb. 25 at 7:10 p.m., officers were dispatched to a report of animal abuse in the unit block of North 10th Avenue. When officers arrived they spoke with a male who stated he had just returned home to find his back door open and his cat deceased. Upon further investigation the cat was discovered to have gunshot wounds. This is an active investigation and detectives are confident that this is an isolated incident.

Case Report 23-1089

On Feb 26, 2023 at 11:20 p.m., officers received a tone alert to a burglary in progress in the 1000 block of Walnut Drive. Dispatch advised the 9-1-1 call-taker could hear glass break in the background with a male yelling. Dispatch informed officers they could hear the female victim yelling for someone to stop and she was no longer responding to call-take. They could also hear her telling someone to put a knife down. When officers arrived they were greeted in the driveway by a male holding two large butcher-type knives. He immediately began yelling for police to shoot him. Officers began de-escalation and attempted to negotiate with the suspect. Officers used a less lethal shotgun, striking him once in his lower right abdomen. Officers were then able to tase him and take him into custody without further incident. He was arrested on multiple charges including first degree burglary, felony menacing and violation of a protection order. The District Attorney's Office has already accepted these charges.

THIS WEEK'S SAFETY TIP

Do you have a family emergency plan? Put a plan together by discussing the questions below with your family, friends or household to start your emergency plan.

1. How will I receive emergency alerts and warnings?
2. What is my shelter plan?
3. What is my evacuation route?
4. What is my family/household communication plan?
5. Do I need to update my emergency preparedness kit?

For information about how to create a family emergency plan, visit ready.gov/plan.
